MONICA CZUKERBERG X ALEJANDRO GLATT

PRESENTED DURING ART WEEK MIAMI 2024, THIS COLLECTION BY MONICA CZUKERBERG AND ALEJANDRO GLATT EXPLORES THE INTERSECTION OF THEIR SHARED JEWISH AND MEXICAN HERITAGE THROUGH A VIBRANT FUSION OF CULTURAL SYMBOLS. THE WORKS INCORPORATE JEWISH ICONS, SACRED MEXICAN FRUITS, AND ANIMALS THAT HOLD SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE IN BOTH TRADITIONS. THIS COLLECTION CELEBRATES THE HARMONY BETWEEN TWO RICH HISTORIES, BLENDING SACRED MOTIFS WITH CONTEMPORARY ARTISTIC EXPRESSION TO HONOR THEIR ROOTS AND THE ENDURING CONNECTION BETWEEN IDENTITY AND CREATIVITY.

Artist Statement: Take home this beautiful fine art ceramic tile by Boston-based photo artist Lisa Link. Lisa's work is inspired by tikkun olam, and her projects address pressing issues like climate change, labor rights, and now antisemitism. She outputs her art to ceramic tile and vinyl for public installations. Her photomontage exhibit on reproductive rights from a Jewish feminist perspective, Warnings, toured nationally for over ten years. She has been awarded public art commissions in the Boston area including a New England Foundation for the Arts Grant. Recently, Lisa embraced creating both painted and digital photo-wrap public artworks on electrical boxes in the Boston area. Two years ago in response to rising antisemitism, Lisa founded an Instagram artist feature series reflecting on the issues. After 10/7 Lisa connected with six other artists in Boston & NYC to initiate the Achdut Postcard Project which brings people together to create personal handwritten messages on artist-designed cards.

I am so honored to be part of this event! I hope that my prints are loved and inspire all! Art is such a big part of living joyfully. I am a lawyer with a degree in art history, and equally an artist. I paint contemporary pieces, many of which are inspired by the beauty of Creation and by Torah. I make prints that, in my humble opinion, are equally beautiful and sometimes even more beautiful than the original pieces. I also create art projects and work with people who have special needs, mostly for Friendship Circle - this has been a huge and rewarding part of my life for almost a decade. I live in Los Angeles with my husband and most of our children. One of our sons lives in NY and another son, in Miami. And on December 18, Gd willing both will be coming to LA to visit us and that's why I cannot be at this event! Enjoy and hope you are enjoy the event so much! Love, Selena

Artist Statement

I'm Maya Sinigaglia, an Italian artist from Milan now based in Tel Aviv. My recent work predominantly utilizes digital art, though I enjoy exploring various mediums. My pieces embody the theme of resilience by acknowledging the suffering of our Jewish brothers and sisters who have been kidnapped in Gaza. In a world prone to forgetting and overlooking these issues, art becomes a crucial tool for advocacy, ensuring that those without a voice are remembered and heard.

In Boundless Hug I explore the idea that love transcends physical boundaries, distances, and even time. The work reflects the profound bond between Noa and Liora Argamani, as well as the collective connection shared by the Jewish people and our brothers and sisters kidnapped in Gaza. It speaks to the belief that, no matter where we are, love, solidarity, and prayers have the power to reach and embrace those who are far from us. This piece is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the enduring ties that unite us across space and circumstance.
